

Chase Cannon, J.D., LL.M.
Vice President and Counsel, Benefits Compliance
NFP
ccannon@nfp.com
Ext. 6860

Chase Cannon joined NFP in September, 2010, as AVP, Benefits Compliance and Counsel. Chase holds a bachelor's degree in political science from the University of Utah, a JD from the University of San Diego School of Law, and a Masters in Taxation (LL.M.) from Georgetown University Law Center, and he is a member of the State Bar of Maryland. Prior to joining NFP, he worked as an attorney at the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Office of Chief Counsel in Washington, DC, where he advised IRS agents and attorney litigators and drafted private letter rulings and taxpayer guidance, including federal income tax regulations and private letter rulings, on issues relating to health and welfare benefit plans. He also spent two years as a judicial clerk for the Honorable Stephen Swift of the United States Tax Court in Washington, DC. In his role at NFP, Chase works with firms, employers and brokers to help solve their employee benefit-related compliance, regulatory, and legal issues.

Erin Ziaja, J.D., MBA
Vice President and Counsel
NFP eziaja@nfp.com
ext. 6861

Erin works in the Benefits Compliance and Legal Departments where she advises NFP Benefit Partner and member firms on all aspects of employee benefits compliance. Prior to joining NFP, Erin worked as an attorney with several leading law firms, including Sidley Austin LLP and Dewey & LeBoeuf LLP, where she represented multinational corporations and financial institutions in complex commercial litigation. Additionally, she assisted her broker/dealer clientele in matters before the Securities and Exchange Commission, Commodity Futures Trading Commission and Federal Energy Regulatory Commission. Prior to attending law school, Erin worked for several years with a consulting firm where she advised Fortune 500 companies on state and local tax matters. She attended the University of Illinois College of Law where she graduated Order of the Coif and served as editor of The Elder Law Journal. She also holds a Master of Business Administration from Dominican University. She is a member of the Illinois State Bar, Texas Bar Association and Austin Bar Association.

